

Afghanistan High Return Loss Adapter Anti-tracking

Afghanistan High Return Loss Adapter Anti-tracking

Returns and displacement in Afghanistan , Displacement

The International Organization for Migration's (IOM) Displacement Tracking Matrix (DTM) Afghanistan's Flow Monitoring is designed to provide

Assessing Key Trends in The Afghan Economy Three Years into The Executive Summary Three years into Taliban rule, Afghanistan's economy is stagnant and fragile. While the sharp 18-month economic contraction that followed the 2021 regime change has ended, the

POST RETURN MONITORING SURVEY REPORT

With the resumption of large-scale returns and deportations from Pakistan in April 2025, it becomes all the more important to monitor the situation of returnees, track their experiences and adapt

Afghanistan

Global Data Institute Responding to COVID-19 International Organization for Migration - HDX Displacement Tracking Matrix Migrants Arrival to Europe Useful Links Reports

Reuters , Breaking International News & Views

Find latest news from every corner of the globe at Reuters , your online source for breaking international news coverage.

Afghanistan , Displacement Tracking Matrix

The Displacement Tracking Matrix (DTM) is an information management system of tools and methodologies used to track and monitor

How--and why--the Taliban won Afghanistan's high

The US-led coalition had more firepower, more equipment, and more money. But it was the Taliban that gained most from technological progress.

Compounding Returns: A Study On Remittance Loss and The Cost Of

Since late 2023, accelerating returns and deportations from neighbouring countries, particularly Iran, have abruptly stopped this safety net.

Afghanistan

This dataset is a compilation of datapoints collected through the FARE and ARRD on the 12,500 household UNHCR assisted in their returns. The objective of the interviews is to record details on the

Tracking IED Harm: IED attacks in Afghanistan

This is particularly the case since it is still common practice for anti-Government elements in Afghanistan to deny or minimise responsibility for the fatalities and injuries they cause through IED

Afghanistan: Returns of Afghans creating multi-layered human rights

The surge in the number of Afghans forced or compelled to return to Afghanistan this year is creating a multi-layered human rights crisis requiring the urgent attention of the international

AFGHANISTAN

There are also high percentages of children out-of-school, as many families prioritize other needs, leading to increasing rates of child labour and early and forced marriages. Three out of four recent

Advanced Anti-Spoofing Methods in Tracking Loop

In some ways, similarity between them helps researchers to find effective methods of anti-spoofing. Besides their differences often limit the effectiveness of anti-spoofing techniques. Therefore

Autonomous Interrogators in Afghanistan

RFID systems collect information from various assets using electromagnetic fields. These fields allow data transfer from RFID tagged items to RFID Interrogators. The RFID Policy Memorandum

Fast-tracking humanitarian and commercial logistics:

In Afghanistan, where humanitarian aid serves as a critical buffer against economic instability, the speed and efficiency of customs clearance can

Compounding Returns: A Study On Remittance Loss and The Cost Of

The study, led by researchers at Samuel Hall, applies a mixed methods approach, combining quantitative survey data with qualitative interviews to understand the effects of remittance

COMPOUNDING RETURNS: A Study On Remittance Loss and The

This loss of income translates into debt accumulation and asset depletion as households struggle to meet basic needs. Growing indebtedness then drives harmful coping strategies and

Flow Monitoring of Undocumented Afghan Returnees

The International Organization for Migration (IOM) Pakistan's FM provides key insights into cross-border migration trends, returning Afghan nationals to

Everything You Should Know About Return Loss

Usually, return loss is measured using a directional coupler. Therefore, these devices are studied in this article as well, including the measurement setup which is

Situation Afghanistan situation

Afghanistan experienced large-scale return movements in 2025, with an estimated 2.9 million Afghan returns. These movements reflected a shift in the profile of returnees, many of whom

Country

The above Returned IDPs data is from household-level rapid assessments conducted across the country by UNHCR and its partners. These figures are expected to increase retroactively with

Islamic Republic of Afghanistan: Detailed Assessment Report on Anti

Afghanistan adopted a detailed "strategy and policy for anti-corruption and administrative reform." In July 2008, the President issued a Decree establishing a High Office for Oversight and Anti-Corruption

Afghanistan

The objective of the interviews is to record details on the returnee households and family members including the amount of cash grant received. Data collected through the VolRep system are available

Responding to Mass Returns in Afghanistan

In October 2023, when Pakistan announced the IFRP and began forcing Afghans to return, the country was hosting between 3.7 million (UNHCR estimate) and 4.4 million (Pakistani

Low loss and high performance interconnection between standard single

We demonstrate halving the record-low loss of interconnection between a nested antiresonant nodeless type hollow-core fiber (NANF) and standard single-mode fiber (SMF).

No safe haven: Human rights risks faced by persons involuntarily

This report presents UNAMA Human Rights Service's findings regarding the human rights risks faced by individuals who have been involuntarily returned² to Afghanistan. The report

DISPLACEMENT TRACKING MATRIX FLOW MONITORING

oints with the Islamic Republic of Iran and Pakistan. This activity involves two interlinked exercises: Flow Monitoring Counting (FMC), which monitors the number of movements across the

Reintegration Response in areas of return

In anticipation of continued and potentially rising returns and deportations of Afghans in 2025, humanitarian organizations operating at the Afghanistan-Pakistan border have significantly

Contact Us

For datasheets, pricing, or custom optical networking solutions, please visit:
<https://www.entrenamientointeligente.es>