

Do I need to reserve fiber optic cable for a main-daughter router

Overview

Fibre optic only needs to be brought to your home, and from there it connects to your router using a standard cable. Q: What wiring does the installer add?

Installers typically run a new fibre line to an Optical Network Terminal (ONT) placed inside your home. Fiber-optic cable with metal materials can negate any benefits of electrical isolation. The NT, also known as a fiber modem, converts the optical signal from the fiber-optic cable into electrical signals that can be used by a router or other network devices.
