Fiber Optic Networking Equipment

Why Use Fiber? Industrial Networks Long Cable Runs Centralized Fiber Lans High Speed Networking Also Check When most end users and contractors look at Cat 5e versus fiber optics for LAN, they compare the same old copper LAN where the fiber directly replaces the copper links. The fiber optic cable is more expensive than cat 5e and the terminations are more expensive. However, the big difference comes if a centralized system is used shown on the right han See more on almiriatechstore .ke brighttech .ke
