

The fiber optic cable in the yard has fallen

Overview

More often than not, the damage to a network is accidental and happens during construction work. Squirrels, rats, dogs, bears and even monkeys, depending on the location, are not exactly opposed to an exquisite fiber optic appetizer, sometimes causing services outages that affect entire cities and thousands of people. As humanity has learned over thousands of years, Earth's natural forces can be unstoppable. If animals like to eat things, we humans like to break things – at least some of us.
